

Special Attractions For This Week

—AT—Rosenbaum Bros.

Owing to lack of space in our storeroom preparatory to displaying our large stock of Holiday Goods we are forced to throw out to the public a portion of our stock at greatly reduced prices.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTS.

The time has now come when you must provide yourself with blankets and comforts and we are prepared to show you an immense stock and at such prices that you cannot refrain from making a selection when you can buy an all wool 11-4 Blanket at $3 per pair that you'll pay $4 for elsewhere and $1 for a satine-covered comfort—large size, that will cost $1.50 elsewhere; then why not buy from us? While we are on the subject we would state that we have 50 pairs white blankets slightly soiled that we propose to sell at one-half their actual worth, beginning Monday morning; first come will get the best.

JACKETS AND CAPES.

We will offer unprecedented values in our cloak department this week and we earnestly request the ladies who have not availed themselves as yet of purchasing their wraps to call on us. We feel confident they will profit by looking over our large assortment. We will enumerate only a few of our bargains:

One lot Black Beaver Capes trimmed with coney fur, only $2.39.

One lot Black Beaver Capes trimmed with braid, only $2.98.

One lot Black Boucle Capes trimmed with braid and fur, only $3.89.

One lot Plain Black, Fine Beaver, trimmed with the same goods, only $4.98.

One lot of Plush Capes, trimmed with thibet fur and lined with changeable silk, $5.

One lot of Plush Capes, beautifully trimmed with fur, jet and braid, only $6.50.

We can show you also a large assortment of finer Capes ranging in price from $8 to $25.

DRESS GOODS.

Our stock of Dress Goods has been replenished with a full line of rough effects in all the leading shades. We would advise the ladies to call and examine our assortment before purchasing, as we guarantee a saving of from 10 to 25 per cent. on their purchases.

MILLINERY.

A Pretty Hat goes with a New Dress, and we are headquarters for this line of goods. We make it a point to combine the two, as we have the facilities for so doing. We kindly ask you to inspect our stock, for the style, quality and price are with you.

THE BAZAAR ORGAN.

Mrs. O. P. Woodson, of 36 Fourth avenue n. w., was the lucky person in the Bazaar organ contest and the instrument was delivered to her yesterday. She is highly elated over her good fortune.

WILL BE REPEATED.

"The Great Diamond Mystery" as given by the Woodward-Warren Company at the Academy of Music Tuesday evening was so well received by the audience that the company, in response to numerous requests, has decided to repeat it at the matinee this afternoon. This play is built around a well defined plot and those who saw it Tuesday evening unhesitatingly pronounced it one of the finest plays ever given in the city.

A PUPILS' RECITAL.

A pupils' recital will be given this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. D. W. Meadows, 512 Campbell avenue s. w.

RESUMED OPERATION.

Adams Bros. & Payne have resumed operation at their brick yard on Franklin road near the bridge.

Hear Coulter on "The Greatest Sin in the World" at Y. M. C. A. hall to-night. For men.

ADDRESS TO STUDENTS.

Rev. E. W. Barnett addressed the students of the National Business College yesterday morning on "The Elements of Success." He delivered an interesting address which was greatly appreciated by the students. The alumni of the college will meet to-night at 8 o'clock.

CIRCUS ADVANCE CAR.

Advance car No. 2 of Forepaugh and Sells' circus came in on the Roanoke and Southern yesterday and left on the west-bound 12:25 train for Columbus, where they will go into winter quarters.

FOUND.—At Van Lear Bros.' Drug Store an opportunity to save 10 cents by purchasing at the same time a 35 cent Looen Tooth Brush and a 25 cent bottle Crown Tooth Wash for 50 cents.

GENERAL SECRETARY HERE.

Rev. D. H. C. Morrison, of Nashville, general secretary of the missionary board of the M. E. Church, South, spent a portion of yesterday in the city and left on the afternoon train for points along the Shenandoah Valley.

"The Greatest Sin in the World" to-night at Y. M. C. A. hall. For men.

TO HOLD A FESTIVAL.

The Ladies Aid Society of Grace M. E. Church will hold a festival Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week in the "Bee Hive" building on Commonwealth avenue n. e. Oysters in various styles, ice cream, coffee and other refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Y. M. C. A.

The special evangelistic meetings for men will continue at Y. M. C. A. hall to-night. Last night Lanier Gray sang very effectively "Lead Kindly Light." To-night W. S. McClanahan will sing and there will be other special music. Mr. Coulter's subject to-night will be "The Greatest Sin in the World." It is expected the attendance will be the largest yet. Song service commences promptly at 7:45 o'clock. All men are cordially invited.

MISS SAUTER MARRIED.

On Monday night last Miss A. Sauter was married in Philadelphia to George Lindholm, of Bald's restaurant, of that city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Father O'Flaherty. The bride was formerly of this city and has many friends here. She is the daughter of A. Sauter, a former foreman in the Roanoke Machine Works, but now a master mechanic in the Norfolk and Western shops at Norfolk.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday morning the case against Link Monahan, charged with the theft of a spoon from the flower show tent, was tried. The decision of the court was reserved until some authorities could be produced. Wm. Jackson was fined $3.50 for being disorderly; Ed. Lewis and Annie Lewis were tried on the charge of fighting, the latter was fined $5 and the former dismissed. Tom Brennan, charged with selling liquor without a license at the Westmoreland Club, was fined $75, from which he took an appeal. Brennan has been fined time and again in the police court on this charge, but he always appeals to the higher court and the matter is heard of no more.

CHRYSANTHEMUM WEDDING.

A beautiful chrysanthemum wedding occurred at Rocky Mount yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of Dr. T. D. Greer, deceased. The contracting parties were Miss Mary Greer and H. W. Dillard. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Southall, of the Episcopal Church. The attendants were H. D. Dillard, brother of the groom, Dr. C. C. Price, of this city, and Misses Luta Nelson, Bettie Binford and Eva Saunders. The bride was dressed in a beautiful traveling costume and after the ceremony the happy couple boarded the noon train and came to this city where they took the north bound Shenandoah Valley train in the afternoon for Washington and other Northern cities on their ten days' bridal tour.

A VISITING ODD FELLOW.

Grand Master Turney, of the Odd Fellows of Virginia, will be here Friday as the guest of Deputy Grand Master C. D. Fox, and will remain several days, during which he will pay official visits to lodges in Roanoke, Vinton and Salem.

Hear Coulter on "The Greatest Sin in the World" at Y. M. C. A. hall to-night. For men.

A BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

Mrs. C. Leighton Thomason while riding her wheel down Salem avenue near the market yesterday morning came near meeting with a serious accident. It seems that as she was riding and tried to bite her in endeavoring to get away from the brute she did not observe a grocery wagon in her way, and the result was that she collided with it, but was not hurt, although her wheel was considerably damaged.

HIGH ART.

The new hot soda fountain placed in position at Massie's Pharmacy is truly a work of art. Made and fashioned in Japan, bears the stamp of that peculiarly artistic nation, and was the selection by the above progressive firm as the handiwork of the twenty-five designs from which they had to select. Their leader this season in hot drinks is Huyler's Cocoa, with whipped cream.

PUBLIC BUILDING ON FIRE.

Yesterday morning about 6:30 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and the Juniors responded and the cause of the alarm was a fire in the new postoffice building. It seems that it had been started on the second floor in a heap of shavings, but how it happened no one seems to know. A passer-by happened to see the smoke and spread the alarm, thus averting what might otherwise have been a most damaging fire to the beautiful new structure. A number of the workmen on the building who board in the vicinity were soon on hand and by the use of a few buckets of water soon had the flames under control, but not until a large portion of the floor had been completely ruined. The greatest damage, however, was to the walls of the building which were blackened by the dense smoke, making it necessary that the work should be done over again. The total loss is estimated at $200, fully covered by insurance.

"The Greatest Sin in the World" to-night at Y. M. C. A. hall. For men.

IN THE COURTS.

In the circuit court yesterday but little was done in the way of taking testimony in the case of Dyer, Vaughan & Co. vs. the city of Roanoke. Almost the entire day was consumed in consideration of a certain contract which was offered as evidence. Clerk of the Council W. E. Thomas was still on the witness stand when court adjourned. In the hearings court a few chancery decrees were entered. To-day the case of the commonwealth against Walter Jamison will be tried.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

The infant son of J. J. and Nannie Day died yesterday morning at their residence, 228 Rorer avenue s. w. The remains will be taken this afternoon to Weigh Switch for interment.

Don't fail to hear "The Greatest Sin in the World" to-night at Y. M. C. A. hall. For men.

A SUCCESSFUL HUNT.

A hunting party composed of Judge A. M. Aiken, of Danville; Dr. J. H. Reid, of Reidsville, N. C.; P. B. Gravely, of Danville; H. B. Shelton, of Bluefield; H. L. Phlegar, of Pembroke; A. L. Brown, of Bluefield; W. H. H. Whittle, of Princeton; R. G. Scott, of Salt Creek; and others, have just closed a ten days' hunt on Palmer's creek, in Botetourt county. They report having killed ten deer, a number of turkeys and smaller game and a very large bald eagle which measured seven feet from tip to tip.

THE CHEERFUL WORKERS.

The Cheerful Workers will give an entertainment at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. Persons who bought tickets several weeks ago will present them at the door. Admission 10 cents for grown people and 5 cents for children.

"THE OLD, OLD STORY."

The Woodward-Warren Company presented last night at the Academy "The Old, Old Story." The play is one of Bartley Campbell's, and one that even this noted playwright need not be ashamed of. Whilst nothing more than a sweet, simple little love story, there is sufficient plot to hold the interest of the audience from first to last, and action enough to afford the principal actors a good opportunity for histrionic effects. Beautifully written, there is not a line in the whole play to which the most fastidious could object, and we think the unanimous verdict of the audience would be, clean, clever play, intelligently conceived and more than creditably rendered. The entire cast was good, but the major characters all showed conscientious work. The parts of Messrs. Chas. McGrath as Harry Grantley, Harry Arnold as James Gordon, Misses Lulu Eisey as Florence Grantley, and Bessie Warren as Blanche Sterling, were well taken and most enthusiastically received by the audience. Running through the play there is a vein of genuine fun, which gave Mr. Woodward, as M. T. Muggs, a fine opening for comedy work, throughout which he kept the house in hilarious, uproarious mirth and jollity. Miss Gracie Beebe as Sallie was a typical servant girl, and made a decided hit in her comic singing. Were the merits of this troupe fully known it would play to packed houses, for it is cheap in only one respect—its prices. The costuming of some of the ladies calls for special mention, being exceedingly rich and handsome. This evening at 2:30 a matinee will be given, in which by many requests will be reproduced the hit of Tuesday night, "The Great Diamond Mystery." To-night the laughable farce of "Our Strategist," in which Mr. Woodward is at his best, will be presented, and we predict for him a full house. The curtain rises promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

MARRIED IN SALEM.

Capt. W. D. Haynes, a popular conductor on the Norfolk and Western, was quietly married last night at the residence of E. A. Anderson in Salem, to Miss Myrtle Payne, a popular young lady of Newport, Giles county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Stephens, pastor of St. James M. E. Church, and in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The young couple boarded the 11 o'clock east-bound train and came to this city, and are registered at the Ponce de Leon.
